

A spectacular tour of Monte Ceceri

By the Etruscan era there was already a dry stone wall, some funerary slabs carved with scenes of daily life, and the majestic Roman theatre act as a permanent reminder of the excavation of the hill . A spectacular tour of Monte Ceceri, the natural place of a craft of fatigue, the stonecutter.

*But that ungrateful malicious people, who descended from Fiesole in ancient times,
and still holds the mountain and the boulder.*

Dante, Inferno XV 61-63

Description of Fiesole, from which according to Dante descend the Florentines, still preserving the roughness of the mountaineers and these places of exertion.

MonteCeceri

where the stone was born

Walking in the “cave” paths

Graphics Arts & Altro PROJECT by Fabrizio D'Armanin

DOWNLOAD

How to reach the Park:

on foot

- for those arriving by foot (or by bus no. 7) or for those who use the central car parks: from Piazza Mino da Fiesole, along Via G. Verdi, (historical street of the village and panoramic view of Florence) to the entrance B of Via degli Scalpellini,
- or always from Piazza Mino da Fiesole, take Via Gramsci, Via Poeti, Via Corsica (also features) to the entrance A of piazzale Prato ai Pini to reach the entrance B and follow the panorama Via G. Verdi on the way back, downhill.

by car

- you can use the nearby car parks for a more complete visit to the village, the Cathedral, the Etruscan walls, the Roman Theater and then to the Park through the routes described above;
- Or, if you prefer to use parkings closest to the Park, use the parking lot at the entrance to Prato ai Pini (and exit at entrance B); or use the parking lot near the schools to enter the Park from the entrance B and exit from A or B.

Sites worth the visit:

Piazzale Leonardo and Sarti quarry: 25 min. (500 mt and 50 mt uphill climb) are easily reached from entrances A and B;

Braschi quarry 20 min (650 mt and 100 mt uphill climb) from entrance C; 15 min. from entrance B (300 mt and 10 mt difference in altitude); 20 mins (400mt and 50m downhill) from Sarti quarry - Piazzale Leonardo

- Carriage road
- Pedestrian street
- Municipal competence path
- Italian Alpine Club trail
- Quarry front
- Park Area
- Free parking
- Toll parking

0 50 100m

